

NEW BRUNSWICK
MULTICULTURAL
COUNCIL

NBMC

The New Brunswick Multicultural Council (NBMC) is a bilingual, not-for-profit, umbrella organization committed to supporting immigrant-serving agencies, and multicultural and ethno-cultural associations in the province.

Since 1983, NBMC has facilitated member, government and community efforts to make New Brunswick the province of choice for both newcomers and residents, through enhancing the economic, social and cultural value of diversity.

Website
www.nbmc-cmnb.ca/resources

VOICES OF CULTURE TEACHER VIDEO RESOURCE

In light of the growing diversity in our province's classrooms, NBMC has gathered front-line voices ranging from newcomers sharing their unique cultural insights and schooling experiences through to webinars from leading experts, all specific to building success in culturally-diverse classrooms.

This invaluable resource allow teachers and other educational allies to gain the key perspectives needed to build paths of inclusion for both parents and teachers.

Project Mission Statement

Voices of Culture promotes sharing diverse perspectives and cultural insights with educators and fostering a more inclusive and respectful learning environment for newcomer students, where they will feel heard and acknowledged.

Project Overview

The project will consist of the following components:

Parent + Student Video Interviews

To provide you with country-specific insights, we have gathered a series of 10+ front-line voices from newcomer parents and students sharing their unique cultural insights and schooling experiences around moving to Canada.

Expert Webinars

You can also find practical insights from some of the most highly-credentialed experts across Canada, including:

- ◆ “Working with Newcomers in a Culturally-Sensitive and Trauma-Informed Way”: A webinar by Dr. Nate Fuks, PhD, MBA, MSc, OPQ, Psychologist at Department of Psychology, McGill University, a certified mediator and arbitrator with the Alternative Dispute Resolution Institute of Canada.
- ◆ “Cross-Cultural Conflict Management in the Classroom”: A webinar by Nicole Smith, a qualified mediator with the Alternative Dispute Resolution Institute of Canada with a Master's degree in Dispute Resolution.
- ◆ “Restorative Justice”: A webinar by Dr. Michael Palmer, PhD with 25+ years of experience working in International Baccalaureate schools as a Principal, Vice-Principal, PYP and MYP Coordinator, PYP/MYP/DP teacher, inclusive learning teacher, itinerant behaviour resource teacher.

Get the Support You Need

Visit our Website to get the guidance you need in building paths for parents and students!

